Thank you for the opportunity to fill out your 2010 candidate survey. I know these issues are personally very important to you and the people you represent. As a libertarian I believe in individual freedoms, that all men were endowed with, from their creator from birth, and no government force can take that away. I agree very strongly with the good works the Catholic Church has done throughout the millennium. I believe giving charity and giving ones self to the betterment of others are two of the most honorable things a person can do as an individual. I however believe that taking one's property, be it money or personal possessions through government force, in the form of taxes or otherwise is wrong. Government mandated Social Welfare programs all though good in theory, never achieve their ultimate goal, and in my view create more problems and more people dependent on a flawed model. I believe if we let people keep the fruit of their labor, much more charitable works would be done.

Sincerely

George R Keane
