

SPEAKER BIO'S:

(as of December 2012, is subject to change)

KEYNOTE ADDRESS:

STEPHEN J. BINZ is a Catholic biblical scholar, popular speaker, and award-winning author of more than thirty books on the Bible. He received his Licentiate in Sacred Scripture from the Pontifical Biblical Institute in Rome and Jerusalem, and has developed Bible studies in the church for over twenty-five years. His latest work is the new Lectio Divina Bible Study, published this year by Our Sunday Visitor. He lives with his wife Pamela in Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

WORKSHOPS:

PETER POPPLETON is a veteran catechist and catechetical leader who has worked in the Catholic publishing world for over 20 years. Peter's passion is helping families form a Catholic culture in their home and his own witness of the importance of the domestic church is inspiring the next generation of catechetical leaders.

JIM MORAN is an Educational Consultant for Loyola Press. As a catechist and a trainer of catechist Jim has traveled throughout the country from his home base in Chicago to help schools and religious education programs grow and flourish.

TRICIA TEMBRUELL is a veteran Youth Leader who has served Life Teen in various roles, helping to start-up dynamic and active youth ministry programs throughout the United States. She currently serves as Western Regional Coordinator for Life Teen International.

KELLIE TAYLOR is a Youth Leader whose missionary zeal lead her to spend several years as a full time missionary in China. She served as Director of Youth Ministry at St. Theresa's and is now the Campus Minister at St. Mary's High School in Phoenix.

NANETTE & CHED SALESEK are active parishioners at St. Thomas the Apostle. Nanette serves as a Disability Consultant for the Department of Family Catechesis reviewing curriculum and helping advance the mission of RE Programs to all children. She works full time for Raising Special Kids Arizona, a 501-C3 Non-profit who helps thousands of families of children with disabilities connect to resources they need.

TRENT HORN is talented speaker whose sharp intellect articulates the beauty and dignity of human life. A Program Specialist for Arizona Right to Life, Trent has produced videos, and spoke to college audiences throughout Arizona. Trent is currently serving as the Coordinator of Respect Life for the Diocese of Phoenix.

SALLY SCHUABLE is a veteran DRE whose experience in the field and love for catechesis has impacted the communities she has served. Working in parish life for over 20 years, Sally began in the Bay Area of San Francisco before coming to serve for 8 years at San Francisco de Asis in Flagstaff Arizona. The past three years she has been the DRE at St. Rose in Anthem.

MARY MIRRIONE is an internationally recognized Formation Leader for the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd. She has been involved in full time children's ministry since 1991. She has published a number of articles for the Journals of the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd and the Center for Children and Theology in Mt Rainier, MD. Her love for teaching children the faith has lead her all over the world training and empowering others to teach children to hear the voice of "the Good Shepherd".
