Family Context / Vocations – Certification & Re-certification

Father Matt Lowry: Fr. Matt Lowry grew up in Phoenix and obtained a bachelor's degree from Arizona State University in Engineering. After five years of being a core member for a Life Teen parish and two years as a full-time Coordinator of Youth Evangelization, Fr. Matt went to St. Meinrad Seminary in Southern Indiana. After being ordained a priest in June of 2008, Fr. Matt spent his first year of priesthood at Holy Cross Parish in Mesa. In July of 2009, Fr. Matt was named as Associate Vocation Director and Chaplain for Holy Trinity Catholic Newman Center at NAU in Flagstaff. Fr. Matt loves working with families and young people, especially in the promotion of vocations.

Father Patrick Mowrer: Father Patrick is a native Arizonan. After schooling at St Theresa and Brophy, he headed to NAU and obtained a teaching degree. Nine years of teaching later, Father Patrick entered Mt. Angel Seminary in Oregon for 5 years of study resulting in a Masters Degree of Divinity and Theology. Father Patrick served at the Cathedral for his first four years as a priest. He was then appointed pastor of the Hispanic National Parish for the Diocese of Phoenix. Presently, Father Pat is serving as pastor of San Francisco de Asís Parish in Flagstaff, AZ. He is head of the Northern Deanery, has served on the presbyteral council for 12 years, served on the deacon curriculum board and he has given several retreats and parish missions. Father Pat has a love for the liturgy and looks for ways to engage others in that passion.
